

Monthly news and events from the City of Thousand Oaks. Thanks for signing up!

The City of Thousand Oaks wishes you a happy and healthy New Year

2017

January 2017

City Council Appoints New Mayor & Mayor Pro Tem

On December 13 at our City's annual reorganization meeting, the City Council unanimously approved the appointment of Claudia Bill-de la Peña as Mayor and Andy P. Fox as Mayor Pro Tem. The event also honored outgoing Mayor Joel Price, who will remain active on the Council.

The five-member Council, which includes the recently re-elected Al Adam and Rob McCoy, nominates new leadership each year, selecting from among its members. The Mayor and Mayor Pro Tem serve a one-year term, taking effect immediately upon Council approval.

City Reorganization Meeting Video

Mayor Highlights 2016 Accomplishments

On December 13, the Mayor Joel Price gave a State of City address highlighting the accomplishments the City experienced during 2016.

The entire event can be viewed online. You can also view a video highlight on the Los Angeles Rams football team that was unveiled at the event.

State of the City Address

Los Angeles Rams Football Team Highlight Video

Sign up for 2017 CERT Classes

Learn life-saving disaster preparedness skills that can help you and your community during an emergency. Register now for free Community Emergency Response Team (CERT) classes beginning in spring. No experience is needed for this free, seven-week series that meets weekly at the Civic Arts Plaza. Classes fill up quickly!

CERT Information and Registration

Affordable Townhome Orientation

The City invites qualified, low-income homebuyers to learn more about two affordable Parkland Townhomes soon available in Thousand Oaks. The orientation will present information on eligibility requirements, restrictions, and the application and selection process. Attendance is mandatory for those wishing to apply.

Orientation Information

Affordable Housing Unit Orientation

- Tuesday, January 10 or Wednesday, January 11
- 6:00 p.m. (check-in at 5:45 p.m.)
- Newbury Park Branch Library, 2331 Borchard Rd, Newbury Park, CA 91362

Other Local Happenings

January Hike Recommendation: Rosewood Trail

Bring in the New Year with a walk on the Rosewood Trail to Angel Vista. This moderately easy 3.5 mile round trip rewards you with a view of the Conejo Valley and the Oxnard Plains.

Rosewood Trail Information

Civic Arts Plaza Presents Garrison Keillor and More

January 26 brings noted storyteller Garrison Keillor of Prairie Home Companion fame to the Kavli Theatre. Steve Martin appears on January 10 as part of the Distinguished Speaker Series. And that's just the start! Visit our Civic Arts Plaza website for information on world-class entertainment in our own backyard.

Watch for Repair Work near TO Library

Over the next few months, repairs are being made on a water pipe at Conejo North Creek Park Access Road. Please watch for potential detours when accessing the Library or Conejo Creek Park.

Library Family Programs

Remember that both the Thousand Oaks and Newbury Park Libraries resume normal hours on Tuesday, January 2 with stories, music and movies for all ages. Visit the Library's online calendar to learn about January Library events.

Wildwood Open Space From Above

Check out this new perspective of our local open space with TOTV's aerial view of Wildwood open space.

Aerial Coverage of Wildwood

Stay Updated on City Council Meetings:
Council Meeting Agendas. . . Council Meeting Recap. . . 2016 Calendar

City of Thousand Oaks

www.toaks.org

Try it FREE today.

