

Tracts developed below minimum density labeled by unique ID

This map shows the approximate 1,000 acres of residential area developed at a lower land use category as described as the “Dark Blue” area referenced in the October 24, 2017 Council Report. The associated table shows more information about each area. (10/24/17)