Subject: Measure E

Councilman Fox:

I'm wondering why the City Council is not going to let the people of the city have a vote on the units added to Measure E? I feel that, through the back door, they do not feel the people have the right to vote on this.

The letters to the council and paper indicate many of the citizens are not happy with this decision! Is there, if any, one can do about this matter?

I will attend the council meeting on April 24th, or is that a waste of time? Is it a moot matter?

I have lived in the Conejo since 1967. I have witnessed the changes to Thousand Oaks 1st hand.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Good afternoon to Mayor Fox and council members,

As a long lived Thousand Oaks resident and signer of the General Plan up for amendment next Tuesday evening, please know of my support for the proposed amendment (heretofore recommended by the Planning Commission), and my offer to provide a historic perspective to those of you who may request same.

It would also be my hope that should you have concerns or doubts in advance of the hearing, I am available to help clarify.

I do not support the effort to add 1000 units to the city's Measure E bank. This is contrary to the spirit and intent of this measure.

Subject: The vote Tuesday and Density

Mayor Fox

I strongly urge you to oppose the proposed amendment, which would result in an increase in the density of Thousand Oaks by 1,521 housing units. This issue is of such importance that it should be placed before the citizens of Thousand Oaks and voted on by the citizens --- not by the city council members alone.

I lived in Orange County off-and-on while serving at Camp Pendleton and fondly remember the orange groves --- mostly gone to massive housing development. I lived in the San Fernando Valley and do not miss the rampant congestion or the over-building of quaint neighborhoods --- many replaced by apartments and shopping centers.

Since moving here in 1980 I have seen positive planning and growth. I like the Thousand Oaks and do not want the Conejo Valley to replicate the look of much of Los Angeles County.

Mayor Fox, I do appreciate your service to Thousand Oaks and your leadership to our city over the years.

Respectfully,

Brent Davis
