BIOGRAPHY

Al Adam is a Thousand Oaks City Councilmember and served as the City's 51st Mayor in 2015. He is also a Managing Director of Investments for Wells Fargo Advisors. He is focused on economic development and the preservation of our environment.

Al was elected to the City Council in 2012 after serving our community in various capacities including Planning Commissioner, YMCA Chair, founder of the Alliance for the Arts, and Chair of the Civic Arts Plaza Board of Governors.

Al is currently a member and former Chair of the Ventura Council of Governments, a member of the Economic Development Collaborative for Ventura County, and the Association of Ventura County Cities. He serves on numerous City committees including the Ad Hoc Economic Development, Finance/Audit, Auto Mall, Cultural Arts Review, Theatres Fund Budget Review and the T.O. Boulevard Specific Plan committees.

After graduating from Rutgers University and moving to the City of Thousand Oaks, Al embarked on a distinguished career in the Financial Services industry. He holds the title of Premier Advisor, a designation held by a select group of Financial Advisors that reflects a superior level of professional achievement.

Al and his wife Marilyn have twin daughters Erica and Allison who currently attend UCSB and have been educated in the Conejo Valley Unified School District system since kindergarten. Al is actively involved in the Greater Conejo Valley Chamber of Commerce. Marilyn is involved in the Volunteers of Policing program and the entire family are members of the Assistance League of the Conejo Valley.
