The Accounting/Customer Service Representative class performs a wide variety of accounting support duties and customer service functions. This class is used broadly within the Finance Department. Incumbents are assigned specific day-to-day responsibilities but participate in cross-functional training in order to maximize flexibility in assigning work to meet changing priorities. Duties require a sound knowledge of the City’s purchasing and accounts receivable/payable procedures. This class is distinguished from the Senior Accounting/Customer Service Representative level in that the latter functions as a lead worker and assumes responsibility for the more difficult and/or sensitive customer service problems. It is further distinguished from the Customer Service Representative class in that the latter is primarily responsible for customer service functions related to planning and permit processing activities. With respect to accounting support functions, it is distinguished from the Accounting Specialist class in that the latter class performs duties that require a more detailed understanding of the City’s budgeting and financial accounting system and the preparation of records and reports related to a broad range of financial transactions.

The following duties are typical for this classification. Incumbents may not perform all of the listed duties and/or may be required to perform additional or different duties from those set forth below to address business needs and changing business practices:
