

City of Thousand Oaks Business Roundtable

Board Details

The Business Roundtable was established as an advisory body to the City Council regarding City Council approved business-related topics. The Business Roundtable reviews and advises City Council of local business issues within the community; goals and workplans are presented to City Council annually for input and approval; City Council may refer other issues to Business Roundtable for review; Business Roundtable submits an annual report on Business Roundtable activities and any other periodic reports deemed appropriate by the Committee or directed by City Council.

The Business Roundtable has 11 members consisting of 10 at-large (appointed by City Council) and one Greater Conejo Valley Chamber of Commerce representative. Members must be a City resident, City business owner, or an employee of a City business with experience in business operations and/or management. Conflict of Interest filing is required.

At-large members serve two-year, rotating terms, the Greater Conejo Valley Chamber of Commerce member has no term limit.
