Community Funding Review Committee

Board Details

The Community Funding Review Committee (CFRC) acts in an advisory capacity to the City Council relative to funding issues for the Community Enhancement Grants (supports projects having an environmental benefit across a wide cross-section of Thousand Oaks), Community Events Fund Grants (supports artistic and cultural events and activities), Social Services Fund Grants (operational support grants to non-profit agencies assisting primarily lower-income City residents), and Sports Facility Grants (supports building or improvement of existing sports fields or facilities and equipment purchase for use by the community).

The CFRC has 9 members. Members must be a City resident. No Committee member shall participate in the discussion of, or vote on, a request if said member is also a member of the organization requesting funds. Conflict of Interest filing and Ethics training is required.

Members serve three-year rotating terms. Initial Committee members shall be appointed for staggered terms with five members appointed for an initial two-year term and four members appointed for a three-year term.
