

Board Details

The role of the Youth Commission is to serve as an advisory body to the City Council on matters dealing with youth. Youth Commission hosts several youth services/events in the community, including the Youth Master Plan.

The Youth Commission consists of 15 members; (13 youths between the ages of 13 – 19; and 2 adult representatives from Conejo Recreation and Park District and Conejo Youth Employment Service). City residency is required of all youth members.

Members serve two-year, rotating terms. High School Seniors are appointed for one year if they have already served a minimum of one year. Adult Advisor members have no term limits.
